

Competition Guidelines

Registration:

- Once the contestants arrive attendance will be taken
- Contestants will be seated according to alphabetical order (as in the sheet) starting with level 1
- Confirm the information of contestant (spelling, phone number, age)
- All contestants must remain seated
- Parents can sit on opposite side

Competition procedure

- Facilitator will start the competition by greeting parents, judges, and contestants
- There will be a brief intro to the Qur'an and its value in our life.
- Competition procedure and rules:
  - When a contestant hears his or her name, they will move to the judges' table and pick a number and then be seated on the chair. The judges will prepare the questions according to the number.
  - A list of competition rules will be sent to the parents. A brief reminder of the rules must be announced at the beginning.
  - Once the competition starts, everyone in attendance must remain quiet
- Dads are not allowed to be in. However, they can call to know when their children finish.
- At the end of each level, confirm no contestant was missed.